32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 6, 2022

Dear Friends,

I always think this coming Tuesday, Election Day, should be a national holiday. It is such an important day for our country and for the world to see and experience what government of the people, for the people, and by the people looks like. We have a duty as citizens to vote and participate in our government. It is part of Catholic social justice teaching that we have a responsibility and a right to be active and involved in who leads us and how they do so. We have a voice and a vote. Democracy works when we take seriously this responsibility and really try to educate ourselves about the candidates and the issues. Everything we do is also guided by our conscience including who and what we vote for. This conscience is formed by our faith and our relationship with God. Therefore, it is a just and right thing to pray in the voting booth and about what we are voting for.

Along with taking seriously our right to vote by educating ourselves and listening to our conscience, I think we also need to remember that there are no losers in a democratic process. Now a days our country seems so divided with close elections and we take on an “us versus them” mentality. It is a tyrannical democracy that thinks because I got 51% of the vote, I can do whatever I want or what those who voted for me want. Democracy is about respecting the voice of those who did not vote for us and working to build consensus through compromise. Ultimately, we are all on the same team, team USA, and if we are going to work together for the common good, we cannot demonize those who differ from us or have other ideas. Let us pray for our country this week that we may have peaceful elections and that no matter who wins we may work together for peace, prosperity, and justice for all.

God Bless,

Fr. Matt

With the onset of Covid 19 in 2020, a dedicated team of volunteers, known as 'Monitors', quickly became essential players in helping us to safely worship together at St. Matthew. While the risks of Covid have somewhat diminished, these dedicated ministers continue to make our gatherings for liturgy a welcoming, safe, and uplifting experience. We are now recruiting new members for this important Ministry. Good candidates will possess these gifts.... good communication and observation skills, punctuality, patience, ability to take initiative and handle challenges.

If you think this Ministry may be right for you, please contact Fr. Matt (mbuening@archbalt.org),

Patty (pattydelisle@outlook.com), or Barbara (bjmetz51@gmail.com)
